

Greg Hirokawa, Ph.D., QME
Clinical and Forensic Psychologist
PSY14394

PO BOX 2152
Delano, CA 93216
ghirokawa@sbcglobal.net

Ph: (888) 615-4321
Fax: (661) 725-1008

Summary

Eighteen years of clinical and supervisory experience with varying psychiatric diagnoses to include malingering, psychoses, mood disorders, personality disorders, pain disorders and substance abuse across varying socioeconomic status and cultures.

Qualified Medical Examiner (QME) reports which are objective, clear and evidenced based. Opinions are substantiated with objective data and supported by logical reasoning.

Medical Provider Network (MPN) treater and evaluator in assisting Primary Treating Physicians (PTP) in dealing with delayed recovery, chronic pain conditions, early intervention and psychiatric conditions to include PTSD, depression, and anxiety,

Testimony on PTSD in immigration court.

Experience

1996 – Present

Clinical Psychologist

Private Practice in Bakersfield, Visalia, and Fresno

- Fitness For Duty (Law Enforcement) (2014 – Present)
- Workers' Compensation evaluation and treatment (1/2008 – Present) MPNs: SCIF, Zenith, Cor-vel, Liberty, Intercare, Coventry, First Health, City of Bakersfield, etc.)
- Psychological evaluations for surgical pain implant device and spinal surgery patients (1/2008 – Present)
- Behavioral Pain Management (1/2008 – Present)
- Forensic Evaluations (2008 – Present)
- PTSD evaluation for VA (2008 – Present).
- Immigration evaluations (2009 – Present)
- Psychological evaluations for Bariatric surgery candidates (2007 – Present).
- Hospital Consultant, Delano Regional Medical Center (2008 – Present)
- Social Security Disability evaluations (2005 – Present).
- Geriatric assessment and psychological treatment i.e., individual and group psychotherapy (1996 – 1999).
- Psychological testing with adolescents and children (1996 – 2000).

2010 – Present

Forensic Psychologist

Mental Disorder Offender (MDO) Unit,
California Department of Corrections Rehabilitation (CDC-R)

Conduct forensic evaluations and risk assessments for the CDC-R on paroling mentally ill inmates who meet the MDO criteria.

2003 - 2010

Chief Psychologist/Mental Health Director
North Kern State Prison, CDC-R

Overall responsibility for the implementation of the Mental Health Services Delivery System within a correctional setting. Psychological evaluations and treatment, Z-case evaluations, crisis intervention, interdisciplinary pain management, quality management, and management of supervisors and mental health staff including Psychiatrists, Psychologists, Social Workers, Recreation Therapists to ensure the delivery of clinical mental health services with an inmate population.

1999 – 2003

Chief Psychologist/Mental Health Director
Corcoran State Prison, CDC-R

Overall responsibility for the implementation of the Mental Health Services Delivery System within a correctional setting. Psychological evaluations and treatment, crisis intervention, quality management, and management of supervisors and mental health staff including Psychiatrists, Psychologists, Social Workers, Recreation Therapists to ensure the delivery of clinical mental health services with an inmate population (Maximum Security).

1996 - 1999

Senior Supervising Psychologist
North Kern State Prison, CDC-R

Overall responsibility for the implementation of the Mental Health Services Delivery System within a correctional setting. Psychological evaluations and treatment, Z case evaluation, parole evaluations, crisis intervention, quality management, and management of supervisors and mental health staff including psychiatrists, psychologists, social workers, recreation therapists to ensure the delivery of clinical mental health services with an inmate population.

1994 – 1996

Staff Psychologist
North Kern State Prison, CDC-R

Provided various clinical services e.g., assessment, intake evaluations, psychological testing, crisis intervention, substance abuse treatment, Z-case evaluations, parole evaluations, risk assessments, individual and group therapy, case consultation on inmates within a correctional setting.

1992 – 1994

Staff Psychologist
Bristol Park Medical Group

Provide Psychological testing, individual therapy, family therapy, and group therapy with children, adolescents and adults within a large Medical Group.

Education

1987 -1992 California School of Professional Psychology/Alliant University
APA Accredited Institution
Ph.D., Clinical Psychology.

1985 - 1987 California State University of Fullerton
B.A., Psychology

Presentations: Biopsychosocial evaluations for surgical procedures – Fresno Pain
Society - 2010.

Interdisciplinary Approach to pain management – San Joaquin
Rehabilitation Hospital - 2010